5.4 – Alumni Engagement

5.4.1 – Whether the institution has registered Alumni Association?

Yes

There is a registered Alumni Association that contributes significantly to the development of the institution through financial and/or other support services The Alumni Club of shri Gadge Maharaj Mahavidyalay offers extensive support to students and offers a platform which facilitates better opportunities for growth and holistic development of the students by enhancing their skills set through means of interactive sessions and activities conducted round the year. The college established an Alumni Relations Cell (ARC) in 2019 to strengthen the association with the alumni and to expand opportunities to the present student to draw support and inspiration from former students. ARC has organized several webinars, Alumni meet, students' mentorship programme and other interactive events. In addition, every department organised a department-level alumni gathering which allowed for more effective interaction between current batch students and alumni. All the events witnessed an enthusiastic participation of students.College continues its interaction with students even after they have formally left college for higher studies through an active and registered Alumni Association consisting of former students. One who contributes Rs. 100 yearly can be the ordinary member of the association while, one who contributes Rs.100 in lump sum can be the life member of the association, but the association is open to accepting donation of larger sums and welcomes any contribution from those who are willing. Alumni Association acts in various ways for the smooth functioning of the college and the overall development thereof. It holds its meeting and various decisions are taken at regular intervals. Members of the association, who are apparently the ex students of the college, put a few suggestions regarding to the development of the college as they know the deficiencies and the strengths of the college very well. As per their suggestions the IQAC of the college tries to work on it. During the last five years a few short term courses have been introduced as per their suggestions. In addition to this a few PG programmes have been introduced. It is as per their suggestions that the college has introduced a few skill based courses. In sports activities some improvements have been introduced as per the suggestions of the alumni. As per their suggestions sport tournaments have been organizedMembers of the association extend their helping hand to currently enrolled students when and where requires. During the last five years many alumni have participated in college programmes and expressed their satisfaction at the overall development of the college. Tremendous efforts lie behind organizing and executing such events in college. Regular meetings are held in which the principal, staff, and students participate and discuss the future plan. The association arouses among its members a feeling of belonging, camaraderie and warmth, essential for the success of this organization. The teachers and students work with great earnestness and sincerity to rich out to the college alumni.
